Alex Parker joined Carmody MacDonald in 2021 as a Litigation Associate with a focus in the firm's homeowner and condominium associations practice. Alex represents over 150 Homeowner and Condominium Associations on various issues including the collection of delinquent assessments, enforcement of governing documents, defense of lawsuits brought against the association, revision of the association's governing documents, and other zoning, code enforcement, and real estate development issues.

Prior to joining the firm, Alex clerked at a well-respected litigation firm and as a Summer Associate at Legal Services of Eastern Missouri in the Community and Economic Development division.

While attending law school, Alex served as Articles Editor for the American Bar Association Journal of Labor and Employment Law. He was also a recipient of the Dean's Honor Scholarship and was involved in the Student Bar Association.

Alex is a 2020 graduate of Saint Louis University School of Law and earned his B.A. from DePauw University in Greencastle, Indiana, where he played baseball and graduated summa cum laude.
